

Membership Request Form

for

Reformed Believers Publishing Grand Rapids, Michigan

As noted in the Preamble to its Constitution, Reformed Believers Publishing (RBP) is rooted in the office of believer, by virtue of which every believer has the privilege and calling to confess the truth and contend against the lie.

All desiring to request membership in RBP shall signify agreement with the attached Constitution and all amendments thereto by printing their name and signing on the line provided at the bottom of this request form.

As explained in Article IV of the Constitution, RBP allows two classes of members, consisting of Regular Members and Associate Members described, in summary, as follows:

1. Regular Members
 - a. Regular Members have the right to vote at meetings and are available for nomination to serve on the RBP Board.
 - b. A man may become a Regular Member.

2. Associate Members
 - a. Associate Members have advisory vote at meetings.
 - b. A man or woman may become an Associate Member.

Please indicate below the class of membership requested by marking the appropriate box:
